DELIBERATE AND UNAFRAID: EXAMINING THE PLIGHT OF THE BLACK WOMAN CULTURAL CRITIC

Thursday, May 12, 2022
6:00 pm Live via Zoom

This event is free and open to the public.

As cultural criticism becomes more valuable than ever, marginalized writers are still routinely pushed to the sidelines, and no one is more ostracized than the Black woman critic. But what happens when they find the courage to write—and ultimately find success—anyway? Join award-winning Boston Globe cultural columnist Jeneé Osterheldt as she moderates a discussion among journalist Clarissa Brooks, writer, cultural critic, and community organizer, Erica Campbell, entertainment journalist, host, and the US News Editor, New Musical Express, and Candace McDuffie, senior writer at The Root, who focuses on the intersection of race, gender, and entertainment, as they explore this topic in depth.
