

I. Core Courses

1. PHIL-120: Ethics and Civic Life
2. PHIL-250: Social & Political Philosophy
3. EC-101: Applied Microeconomics
4. EC-102: Global Macroeconomics
5. GVT-110: Introduction to American Politics
6. One of the following:
 - GVT-225 U.S. Constitutional Law & Civil Liberties, or
 - GVT-181 Introduction to Comparative Politics
7. One of the following:
 - STATS-240 Introduction to Statistics
 - STATS-250 Applied Statistics
 - GVT-201 Data Analysis and Politics
 - PHIL-212 Formal Logic
8. PPE-401 Political Economy [your senior year]

II. Electives

A. Government

- At least one course at 200 level or higher.
- At least one course at 300 level or higher.

B. Philosophy

- At least one course at 200 level or higher.
- At least one course at 300 level or higher.

C. Economics

- At least one of the two courses must be at the 300-level or higher.
 - EC-131: Environmental Economics
 - EC-141: Development Economics
 - EC-151: Economic & Human Geography
 - EC-311: Intermediate Micro Theory
 - EC-421: Public Finance
 - EC-423: Economics of Regulation
 - EC-430: International Trade Theory & Policy
 - EC-433: Public Choice
 - EC-442: International Monetary Economics
 - EC-460: Game Theory
 - EC-503: Internship in Economics